Transitions at Transitions

During this past year, not only has Transitions experienced many accomplishments, but we have also seen our fair share of changes.

In December 2012, Transitions Chief Executive Officer DiAnn Baxley resigned from her position after four years of service. As Transitions staff and Board said good-bye to DiAnn, a search committee was formed to find a new CEO who would bring the same quality of service to our organization. In the interim, Heather Over was named Acting CEO until the search was complete. In July 2013, Susan K. Mathias began her tenure with Transitions as our newly named Chief Executive Officer.

Most recently, Susan served as the Director of the YWCA of North Central PA with responsibility for programs and operations for Wise Options and two HUD funded programs for homeless women and children. Susan holds a Masters of Public Administration and has worked for the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U.S. Small Business Administration and the Federal Reserve Board. Susan was Vice President of Human Resources with The JPM Company and she is the former Regional Coordinator for U.S. Congressman Chris Carney.

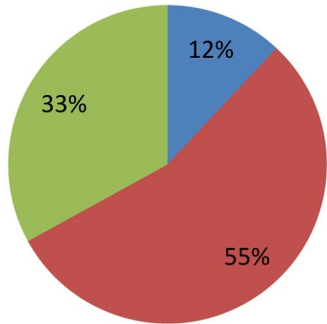

Susan brings a regional focus to the start-up of a North Central PA Human Trafficking Response Team and the implementation of the Lethality Assessment Program that identifies high-risk situations in domestic disturbance calls to the police and links victims to services.
